

CURRICULUM VITAE

ROGER HOPKINS

Professional

Barrister, qualified 1969; Solicitor, qualified since 1976.

Partner in the international law firm of Faegre & Benson LLP specialising in all forms of commercial dispute resolution.

Qualified (since 1996) as a CEDR accredited mediator, Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a Solicitor Advocate with rights of audience in all higher civil and criminal courts.

Relevant Experience in Information Technology Disputes

- Claims for and against hardware suppliers.
- Claims for and against software suppliers.
- Claims for and against software consultants.

These include disputes between:

- Hardware manufacturer and UK plc in respect of allegedly defective file servers supplied through a distributor.
- Publishing company and software consultants concerning installation of defective computer system.
- Securities company and suppliers of screen based telephone system for its dealing rooms.
- Banks in Europe and Africa and specialist financial software suppliers in relation to claims for allegedly defective software solutions.